You will find all information concerning what types of care, situations and costs are covered in article a) of the insurance certificate pertaining to each type of coverage.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW concerning purchase and travel insurance

Purchase and travel insurance also offers medical and general assistance services as well as legal assistance at all times.

2. Purchase and travel insurance involves coverage exclusions, limitations and reductions

We may refuse to pay your claim because of the exclusions, limitations and reductions set out in the insurance certificate.

Please review them immediately.

You will find all the details about exclusions in the insurance certificate in article b) of each protection.

WARNING – Exclusion for pre-existing conditions

If you were injured or ill in the 3 or 6 months prior to your travel date of departure, the exclusion for pre-existing conditions may apply.

Avoid unpleasant surprises. Review article b) of each section in the insurance certificate to confirm that you are covered and that this insurance works for your situation.

Coverage for emergency medical care outside the province of residence – Restrictions concerning age and duration of trip

Depending on your age, you are covered in the event of a medical emergency if your trip respects the maximum number of days permitted:

- > 54 years or less: 60 days
- > 55 to 64 years: 31 days
- > 65 to 75 years: 15 days
- > 76 years or more: no trip is covered

NOTE: If the trip duration is longer than the maximum number of days permitted, no coverage will be offered for this trip.

3. Duration of insurance

Start

Purchase and travel insurance goes into effect as soon as your credit card is activated.

End

The insurance ends on the first of the following events:

- > the date on which the account is cancelled or closed by the issuing banking institution;
- > the date on which the account is closed per the request of the primary cardholder;
- > the date on which the purchase and travel insurance is cancelled or suspended by the issuing banking institution (advance notice will be sent to the primary cardholder at least 90 days prior).

Consult section 2 of the insurance certificate and article a) pertaining to each type of coverage for all the details concerning insurance duration.

4. How to file a claim and applicable timeframes

Insurance can give you peace of mind should the unexpected occur. Here's how to file an insurance claim.

1. Contact the assistance provider as soon as the event occurs at 1-888-235-2645 or 514-286-8345 (collect calls accepted).

The assistance provider will open a file in your name.

2. Complete the forms and send them to:

CanAssistance Inc.

1981 McGill College Avenue, Suite 400
Montreal, QC H3A 2W9

Gather the necessary documents for the application consideration, if applicable, and send them to the assistance provider as soon as possible, ideally within 90 days of the event to which the claim relates.

We will notify you of our decision following review of your application and, if applicable, we will pay the benefit within 60 days of receiving all the requested documents.

For more details about claims and payment of benefits, consult the article c) of each section of the insurance certificate.

Notice given by a distributor

Section 440 of the Act respecting the distribution of financial products and services (chapter D-9.2)

The Act respecting the distribution of financial products and services gives you important rights.

The Act allows you to rescind an insurance contract, without penalty, within 10 days of the date on which it is signed. However, the insurer may grant you a longer period.

To rescind the contract, you must give the insurer notice, within that time, by registered mail or any other means that allows you to obtain an acknowledgement of receipt.

Despite the rescission of the insurance contract, the first contract entered into will remain in force. Caution, it is possible that you may lose advantageous conditions as a result of this insurance contract; contact your distributor or consult your contract.

After the expiry of the applicable time, you may rescind the insurance contract at any time; however, penalties may apply.

For further information, contact the Autorité des marchés financiers at 1-877-525-0337 or visit www.lautorite.qc.ca.
